

Allotment volunteer role

Thank you for enquiring to become a Brighton Unemployed Centre Families Project Volunteer. This is a new project in the Centre and therefore we offer lots of opportunities. We are looking for people who can offer the following skills in one or two areas.

Even if you are new to gardening you are still welcome to come and learn new skills.

Please talk to Ellie if you wish to find out more

Activities (Tick as many as you can do)

- Weeding
- Watering
- Planting
- Building
- Hoeing
- Harvesting
- Planning and scheduling
- Educational opportunities/ information
- Can you offer transport (we desperately need access to a van!)

You must be able to:

- Work as part of a team
- Attend an allotment induction by BUCFPs Participation/ education worker
- Attend monthly meetings (on a Tuesday morning)
- Fill in the allotment diary each time you work on the allotment

What you get in return

- Free lunch at BUCFP on the day you volunteer
- Free travel to the allotment on the day you volunteer
- A reference after 3 months
- A free computer course after 2 months
- Access to allotment plot
